These forward-looking statements reflect, at the time made, the Company's beliefs, intentions and current targets/aims concerning, among other things, the Company's results of operations, financial condition, liquidity, prospects, growth and strategies. Forward-looking statements include statements regarding: objectives, goals, strategies, outlook and growth prospects; future plans, events or performance and potential for future growth; liquidity, capital resources and capital expenditures; economic outlook and industry trends; developments of the Company's markets; the impact of regulatory initiatives; and the strength of the Company's competitors. Forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that may or may not occur in the future. The forward-looking statements in this document are based upon various assumptions, many of which are based, in turn, upon further assumptions, including without limitation, management's examination of historical operating trends, data contained in the Company's records and other data available from third parties. Although the Company believes that these assumptions were reasonable when made, these assumptions are inherently subject to significant known and unknown risks, uncertainties, contingencies and other important factors which are difficult or impossible to predict and are beyond the Company's control. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and such risks, uncertainties, contingencies and other important factors could cause the actual outcomes and the results of operations, financial condition and liquidity of the Company or the industry to differ materially from those results expressed or implied in this document by such forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this document. The Company expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to release any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements to reflect any change in the Company's expectations with regard thereto or any changes in events, conditions or circumstances on which any forward-looking statements are based. No representation or warranty is made that any of these forward-looking statements or forecasts will come to pass or that any forecast result will be achieved. Undue influence should not be given to, and no reliance should be placed on, any forward-looking statement. No statement in the document is intended to be nor may be construed as a profit forecast. It is up to the recipient to make its own assessment of the validity of any forward-looking statements and assumptions. No liability whatsoever is accepted by the Company in respect of the achievement of such forward-looking statements and assumptions. Neither the Company nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or affiliates nor any other person undertakes an obligation, and does not expect to publicly update, or publicly revise, any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements attributable to it or to persons acting on its behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements referred to above and contained elsewhere in this presentation.

To the extent available, the industry, market and competitive position data contained in this document come from official or third party sources. Third party industry publications, studies and surveys generally state that the data contained therein have been obtained from sources believed to be reliable, but that there is no guarantee of the accuracy or completeness of such data. While the Company believes that each of these publications, studies and surveys has been prepared by a reputable source, none of the Company nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or affiliates has independently verified the data contained therein. In addition, certain of the industry, market and competitive position data contained in this document come from the Company's own internal research and estimates based on the knowledge and experience of the Company's management in the markets in which the Company operates. While the Company believes that such research and estimates are reasonable, they, and their underlying methodology and assumptions, have not been verified by any independent source for accuracy or completeness and are subject to change and correction without notice. Expenses related to Degussa Bank acquisition

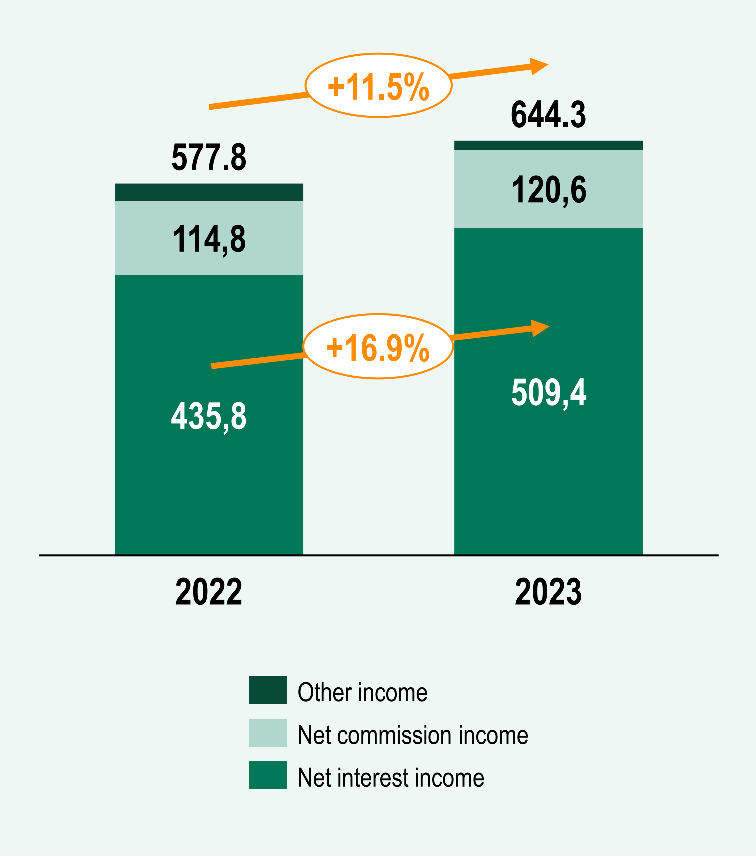
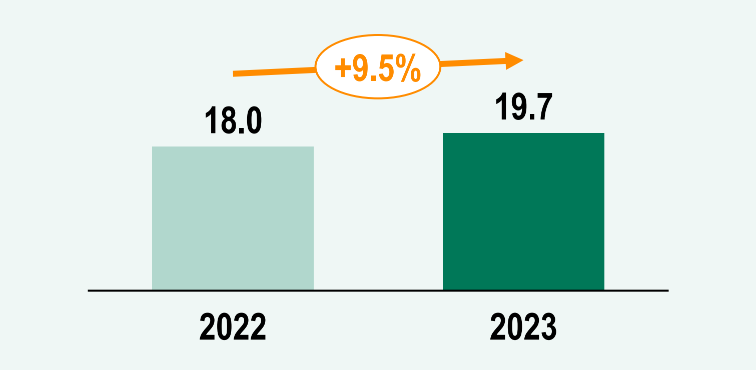
1) Excluding Degussa Bank acquisition-related costs. For 2023, without €24.8m expenses related to Degussa Bank acquisition of which €0.3m related to ECB-onboarding project

1 Operating income up by 11.5% driven by strong net interest income growth

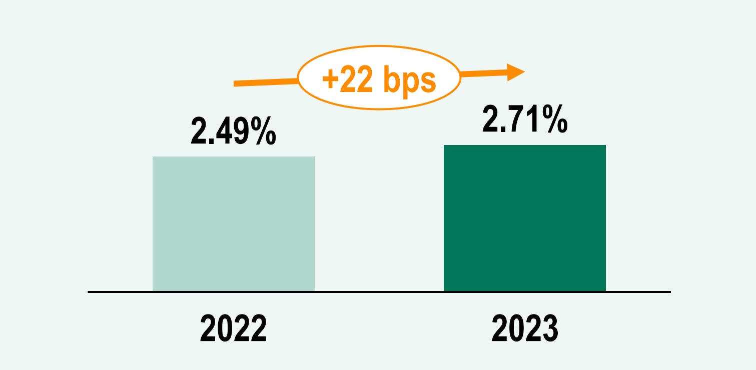
Operating income [€m]



Loan volume [€bn]



Net interest margin



Comments

- Operating income continued to increase to more than €644m
- Ongoing expansion in NII of 17% (y-o-y)
  - Loan volume up by 9.5 %
  - Net interest margin further improved by 22 bps reaching 2.7%
- Positive NCI development, up by 5%

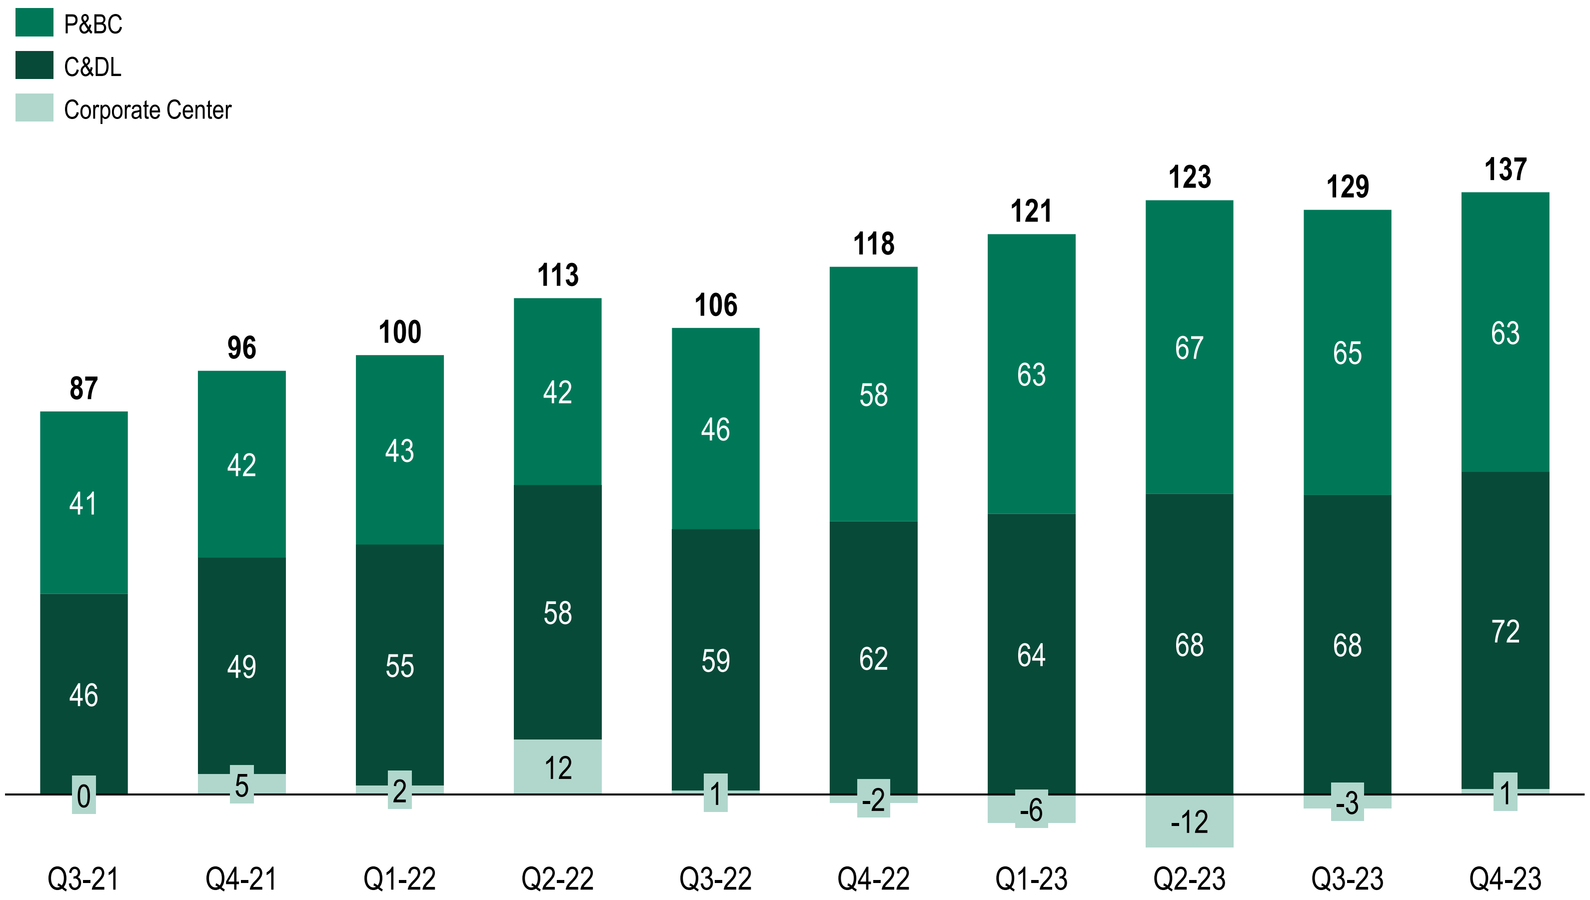
Outlook FY 2024:

- Stable NII income expected
  - Hedging strategy in place to maintain NII on sustainably high level
  - Loan growth to offset impact of potentially lower interest rate environment
- Focus on fee generating business to enhance NCI
- NIM is initially expected to be slightly diluted through completion of the Degussa Bank transaction until asset repricing is materialising

Rounding differences may occur

1 Quarterly net interest income at high level

Net interest income (€m)

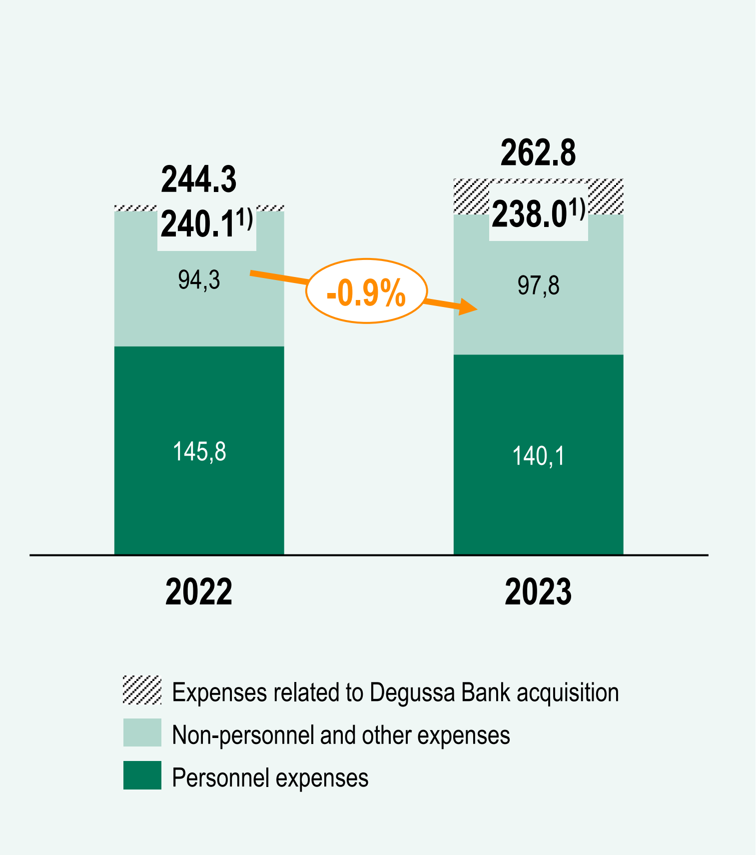


Comments

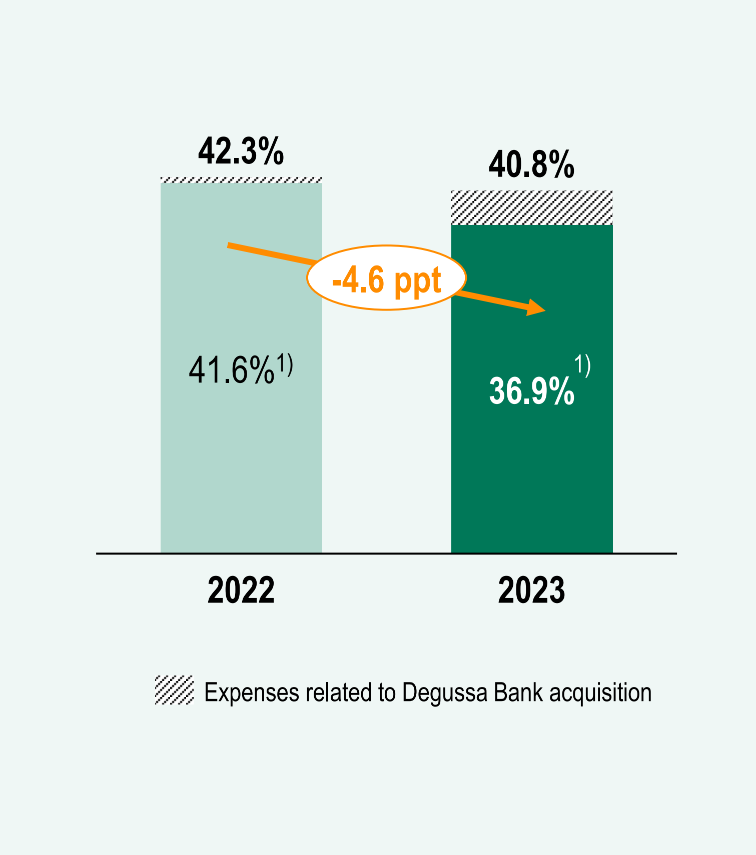
- Q4 2023 NII shows 57% growth vs. Q3 2021
- Steady increase of quarterly NII driven by increasing deposit margins (esp. PBC) and loan growth (esp. CDL)
- Currently lower interest rate risk position exploits inverse rate structure
- Underlying NII assumptions
  - Interest rates as per Dec-23 forward rates
  - Deposit beta planning assumption for 2024 at 45% compared to actual ~27% (FY 2023)

1 # Continued focus on costs to offset the impact of inflation and investments

Operating expenses [€m]



Cost-Income-Ratio



Comments

- Successful cost management resulting in 0.9% reduced operating expenses (ex Degussa Bank acquisition costs) while
  - Consumer prices in Germany increased by 5.9% on average in 2023[2)]
  - Investments into technology and infrastructure as well as upskilling of employees were made
- €24.8m expenses related to Degussa Bank acquisition
- Normalized CIR improved to below 37%

Outlook FY 2024 :

- Ongoing focus on cost management
- Assumed wage increases due to collective bargaining agreement in the private banking industry
- Further optimization of own used properties planned
- Hirings of new specialists ongoing to meet regulatory requirements (e.g. ESG, ECB, IT, control functions)
- First cost synergies expected after technical merger with Degussa Bank

Rounding differences may occur

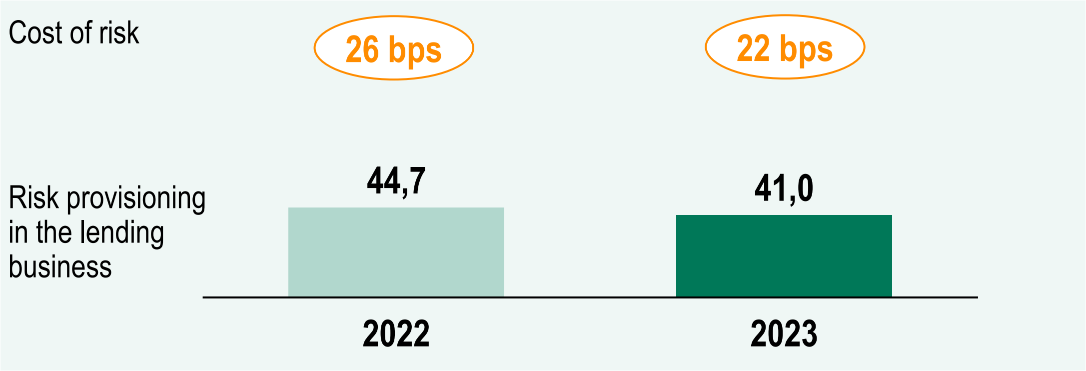
1) Excluding Degussa Bank acquisition-related costs. For 2023, without €24.8m expenses related to Degussa Bank acquisition of which €0.3m related to ECB-onboarding project

2) Source DE Statis

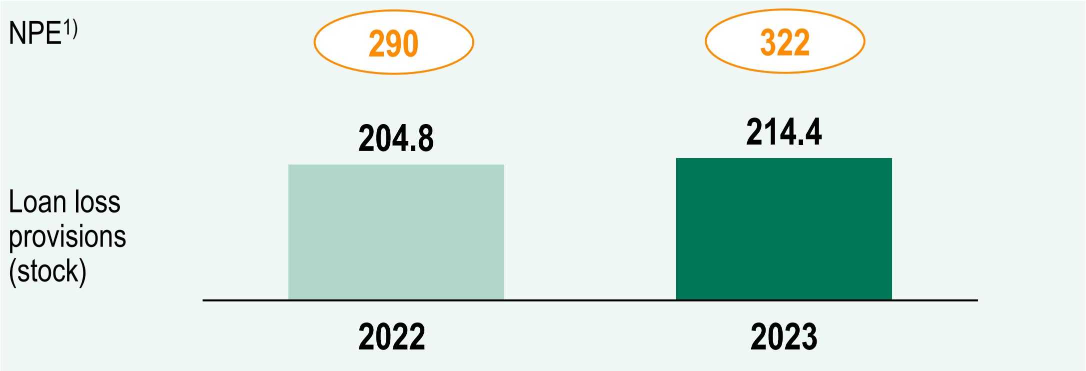
1 Well-diversified loan portfolio and prudent risk management shield against credit losses in a stressed macro environment

OLB BANK

Risk provisioning in the lending business [€m] and cost of risk



Loan loss provisions (stock) and non performing exposures (NPE) [€m]



Comments

- Risk provision of €41m and CoR of 22bps at the lower end of planned results
- Net risk provision benefitting from €10m relief based on recalibration of IFRS 9-model, used to prudently increase SLLPs caused by stressed macro environment
- Backbook of risk provisions contains unchanged PMA of €16m serving as additional buffer
- Diversified loan portfolio with almost unchanged (y-o-y) NPL ratio at 1.5%

Outlook FY 2024:

- Cautiously monitoring potential rating migration effects
- Potential for slight increase in NPL ratio due to macro environment but within levels seen over the past 3 years

Focus Commercial Real Estate:

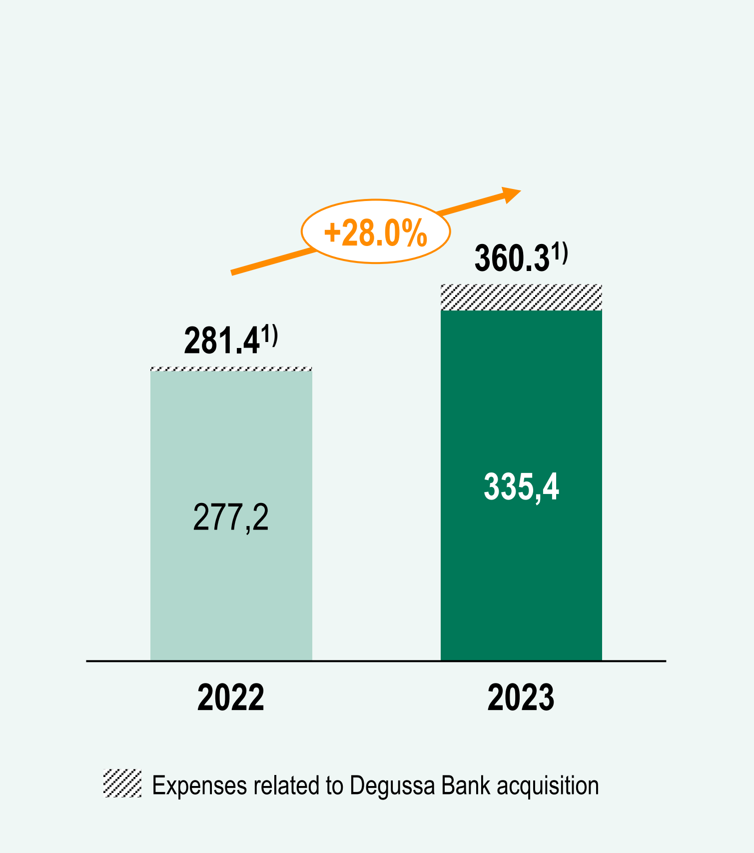
- Strategy to reduce growth in CRE since 2020 is bearing fruit, in particular abstain from developments as well as US-exposures
- Based on this risk management approach, only two cases lead to provisions of €4.6m
- Prudent monitoring and careful provisioning policy of CRE exposures to be continued

Rounding differences may occur

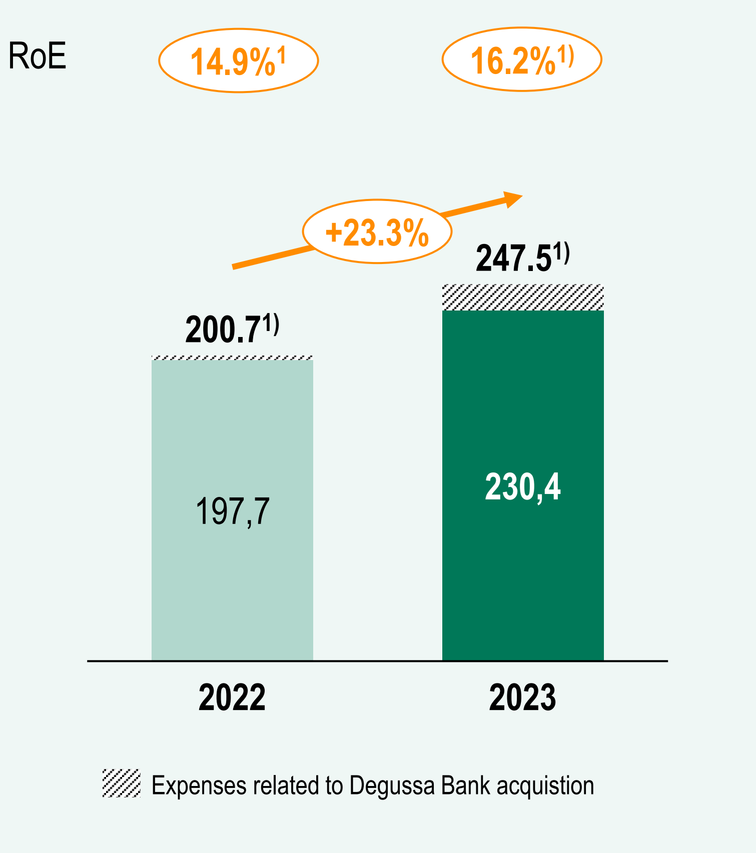
1) NPE incl. accrued interest of defaulted positions

1 Continued focus on growth and efficiency …

Result before taxes [€m]



Result after taxes [€m]



Comments

- Normalized result before taxes improved by 30% (y-o-y) to €360m
  - Including Degussa Bank related costs still an increase to €335m (+21% y-o-y)
- High profitability: Achieving €248m result after taxes and 16.2% RoE (ex Degussa Bank costs), despite considerably higher capital position ahead of closing
- Drop in deposit protection and regulatory costs already visible

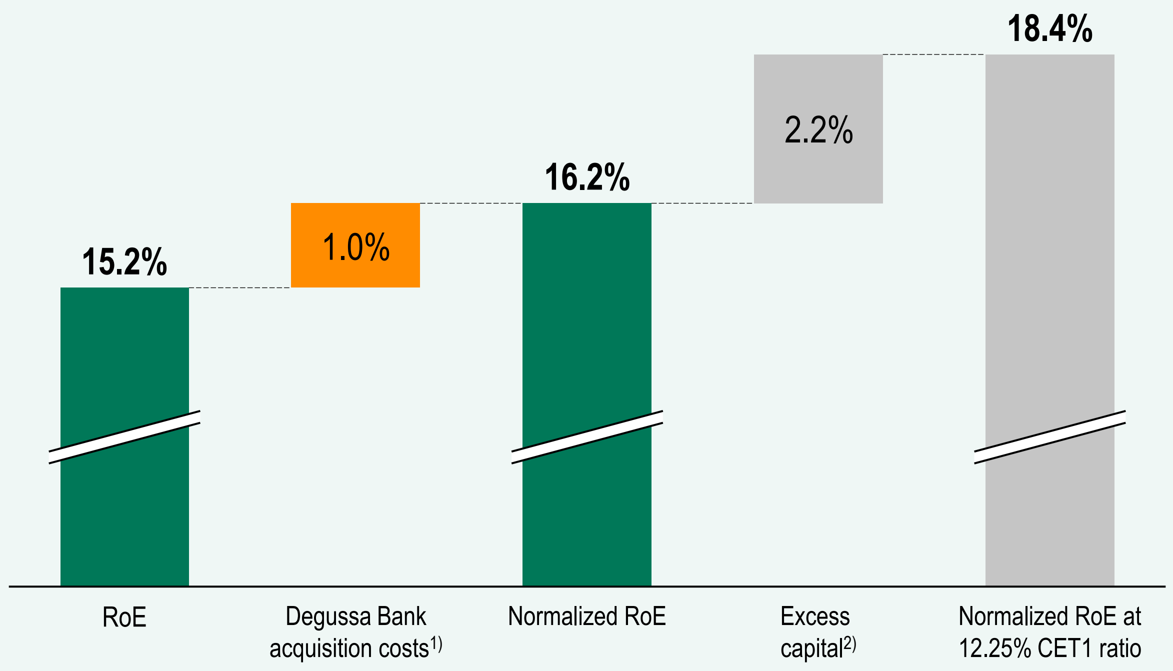
Outlook FY 2024:

- Upside potential from merger effects expected to be realized after migration of Degussa Bank

1) Excluding Degussa Bank acquisition-related costs. For 2023, without €24.8m expenses related to Degussa Bank acquisition of which €0.3m related to ECB-onboarding project

1 … as a basis for high RoE levels

Return on Equity after taxes (2023)



Comments

- Based on successful operating performance OLB again demonstrated ability to deliver strong results
- In preparation of upcoming Degussa Bank closing certain one-off ramp-up costs have already been booked throughout FY 2023
- Capital build up ahead of Degussa Bank closing now completed with excess capital to be used to absorb transaction
- Based on the minimum CET1 target ratio OLB is already significantly ahead of RoE strategic mid-term target of 14-16%

1) Without €24.8m expenses related to Degussa Bank acquisition of which €0.3m related to ECB-onboarding project
2) Excess capital based on >12.25% CET1 target ratio

Comments

- Operating income grew by 17.8%
- NII boosted by almost 37%
- Loan volume increased by 4% y-o-y
  - Mortgage growth in the Netherlands offsetting slowdown in demand for mortgages in Germany
- More than 12% net deposit growth within the last twelve months to €12.2bn
- Net commission income primarily affected by lower securities transactions and brokerage fees for real estate transactions in line with German market dynamics
- Expanding business franchise through ramping up securities platform cooperation with FNZ
- Concrete steps implemented in digital banking: fully remote onboarding, E2E sale features added
- CIR at target level of approx. 45%

Rounding differences may occur

Comments

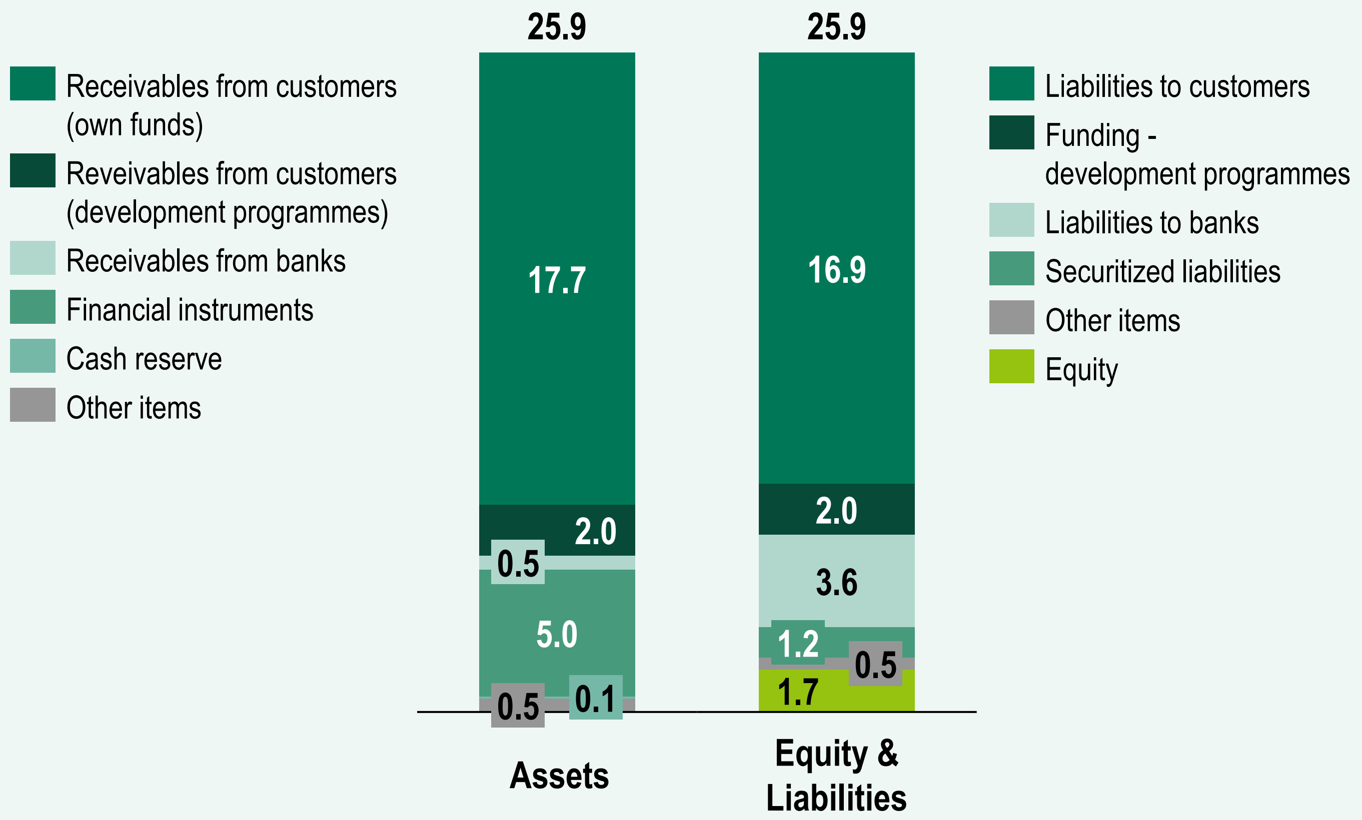
- Operating income up by 17.5% y-o-y
- 16% increase in NII due to continued volume growth
- Loan volume grew by 13% in 2023
  - C&DL grew especially in segments Football Finance, Fund Finance and International Diversified Lending (IDL) as well as Acquisition Finance
  - Very selective regarding new business in CRE, Shipping and Wind
  - Continued strong diversification of C&DL loan portfolio
- 27% rise in NCI due to fee increases through successful new loan origination
- Comfortable risk provisioning level across all subsegments
- CoR improved to 32 bps (2022: 51 bps)

Rounding differences may occur
1) Return on Equity @12.5% CET1 ratio

3 Robust balance sheet structure with balanced loan-to-deposit ratio

OLB BANK

Balance sheet composition [Dec 2023, €bn]

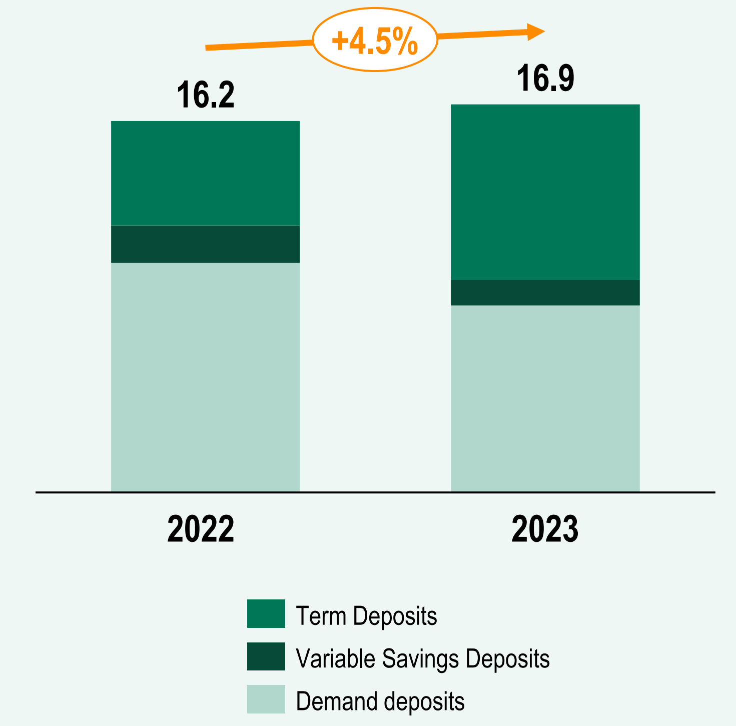


Comments

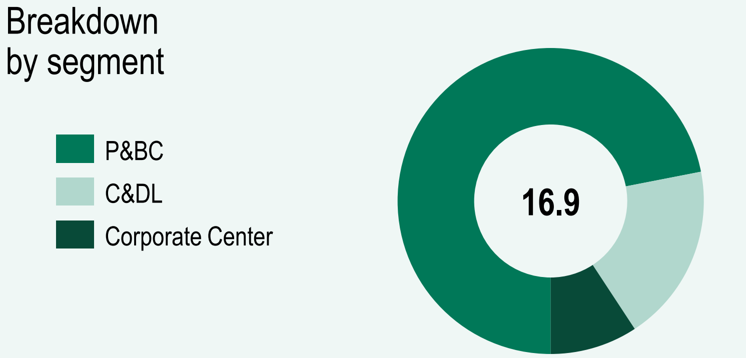
- Simple balance sheet structure
- Favorable funding mix with €16.9bn of stable customer deposits; which will be further supported by Degussa Bank transaction
- Investment portfolio used for regulatory liquidity reserve consists almost exclusively of public sector bonds and covered bonds with excellent ratings
- Liquidity ratios consciously high for the time being
  - LCR at 147%
  - NSFR at 114%
- Leverage ratio as of 12/2023 at 5.5%

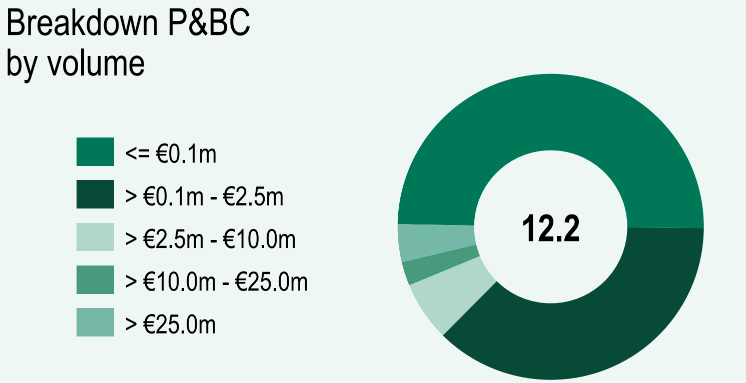
3 Maintained stable deposit levels, supported by solid regional deposit base

Deposit development [€bn]



Composition of deposits [Dec 2023, €bn]



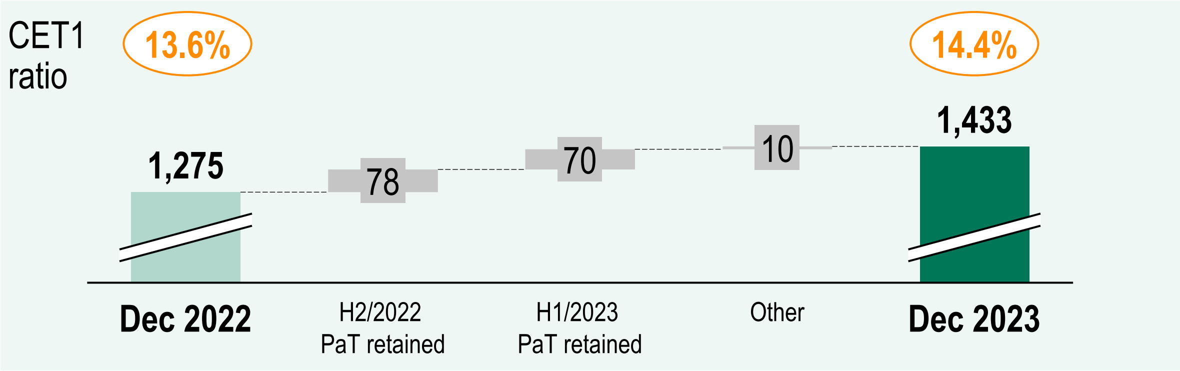


Comments

- Deposit base grew by 4.5% y-o-y to €16.9bn and confirms the continuous focus on deposits as main funding source and securitized liabilities in 2023
- Highly granular and stable deposits from regional long-lasting customer relations
- >90% of total deposits protected by deposit protection schemes
- Shift from variable products to time deposits as expected, trend has slowed down in Q4
- Overall deposit beta remains favourable at ~27%
  - Beta of retail deposits ~23%
  - In line with expectation, beta for corporate deposits at ~40%
- Actual interest rate on deposits at 1.55%

3 Sustainable organic capital generation promoting growth and rewarding shareholders

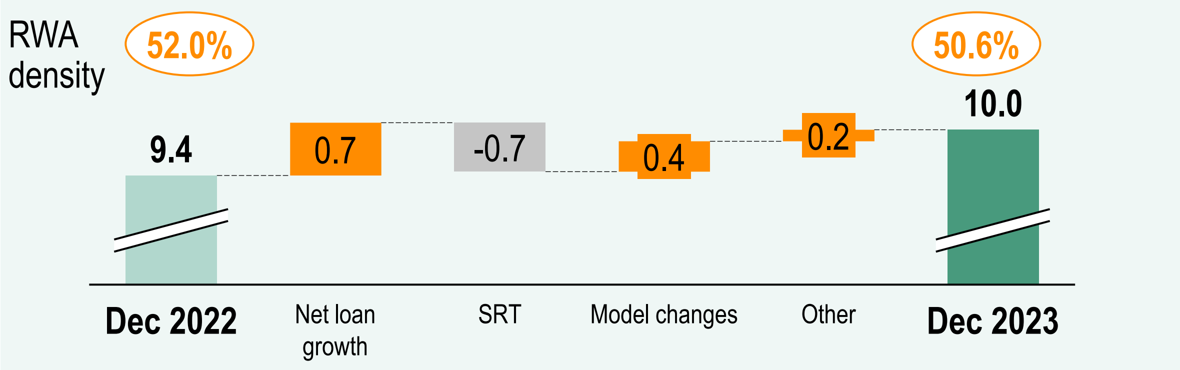
CET1 development [€m, HGB]



Comments

- CET1 capital improved by c. €158m
  - Retention of €70m of the first half year 2023 HGB result approved by BaFin
- Other effects comprise in particular the transition from accounting capital to regulatory capital
- CET1 ratio of 14.4% improved by 74 bps

RWA development [€bn]

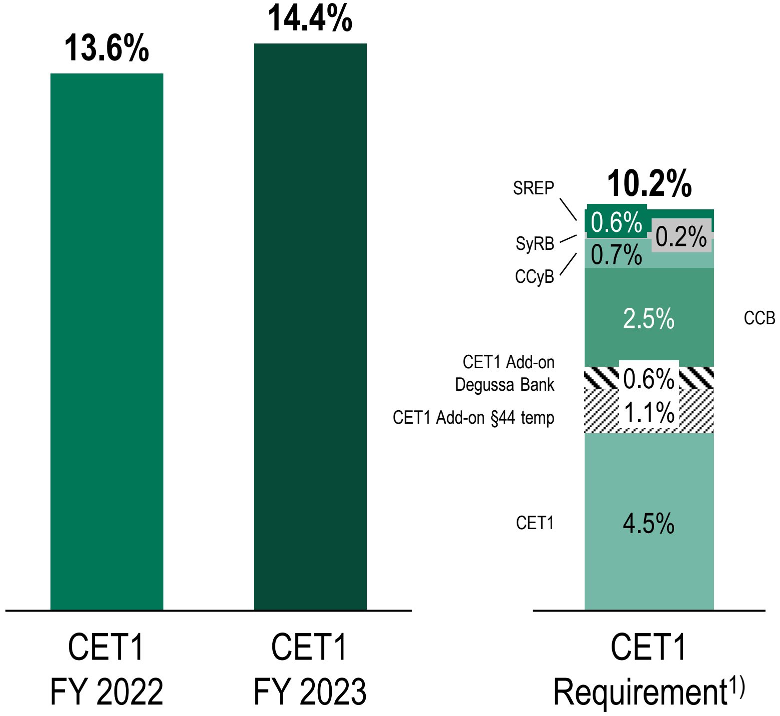


Comments

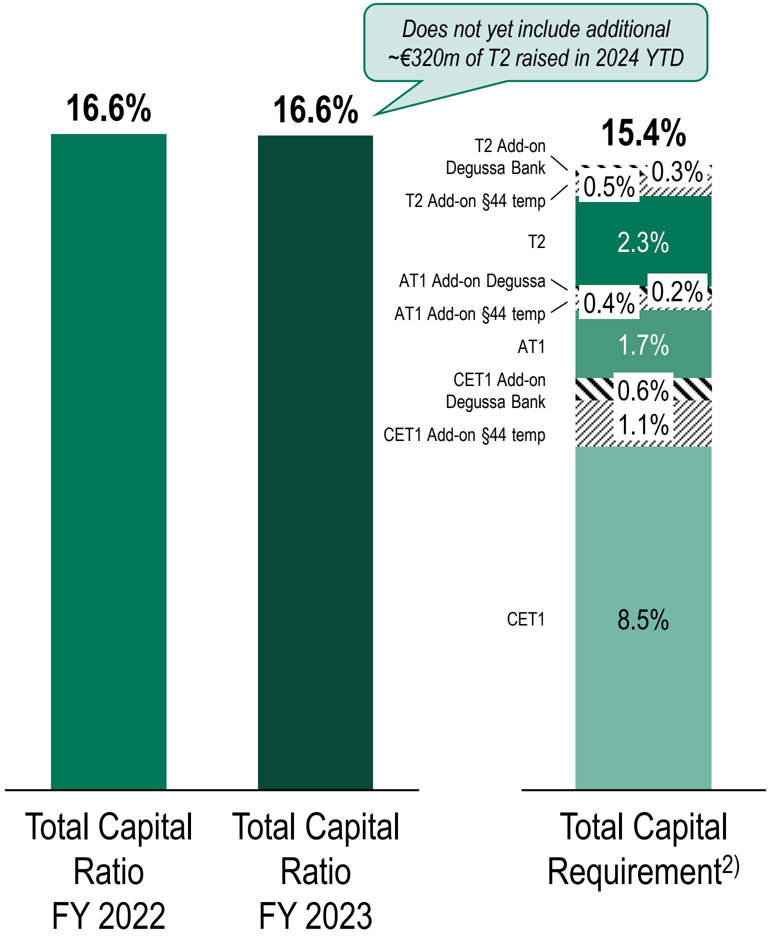
- RWA density improved by 140bps
- RWA increase to €10.0bn
  - Net loan growth of ~€0.7bn offset by synthetic risk transfer
  - Application of additional FIRB models and model adjustments totaling €0.4bn
  - Other effects include in particular a €140m adjustment in operational risk due to a more conservative valuation approach

3 CET1 well above requirement - substantial buffer in current environment

CET1 capital requirements



Total capital requirements



Comments

- CET1-ratio stands at 14.4% deliberately above management target given financing the Degussa Bank transaction at closing and the prevailing macro environment
- Efficiency further improved by €320m Tier 2 issuance in total in 2024 YTD
- All capital requirements fully reflected
- In connection with the BaFin's decision regarding the acquisition of Degussa Bank, an additional total capital requirement in the amount of 100 bps (of which 56.25 bps CET1), can be expected which will be temporary for the duration of one year as of the point of the merger

Outlook FY 2024:

- OLB expected to be classified as a 'significant institution' to be supervised by ECB after closing of Degussa Bank acquisition
- OLB is already preparing for ECB supervision
- Capital ratio should benefit from Basel 4 and migration to IRB model

1) CET1 Requirement incl. P2G: 10.3%; effective from Feb 2024, the Degussa add-on effective from date of legal and technical merger (planned August 2024)
2) Total Capital Requirement incl. P2G: 15.5%; effective from Feb 2024, the Degussa add-on effective from date of legal and technical merger (planned August 2024)

Expected earnings accretion through synergies

Stable, reliable and supportive ownership structure since 2014. Material inflows into retained profits supporting continuous growth and profitable development of today's OLB

1) Acquisition subject to regulatory approvals and various closing conditions, closing expected in H1 2024

4 Preparation for Degussa Bank integration well on track

Rationale

Adding significant scale to OLB's retail banking franchise

- Acquisition of ~311k[1)] retail customers in core German market, in geographically complementary areas
- Approx. double of OLB's physical reach through worksite branches

Material cost synergy potential, driven by low complexity

- Cost savings of ~50% based on the FY 2023 cost base of ~€103m[3)]

Expanding deposit base

- Acquisition of ~€5bn[1)] deposit base, mainly comprising low-cost, sticky retail deposits

Clearly identified synergies and integration benefits

Targeted cost savings of c.€50m[1)]

- Personnel
- IT expenses
- Project expenses
- Comms. & Marketing expenses

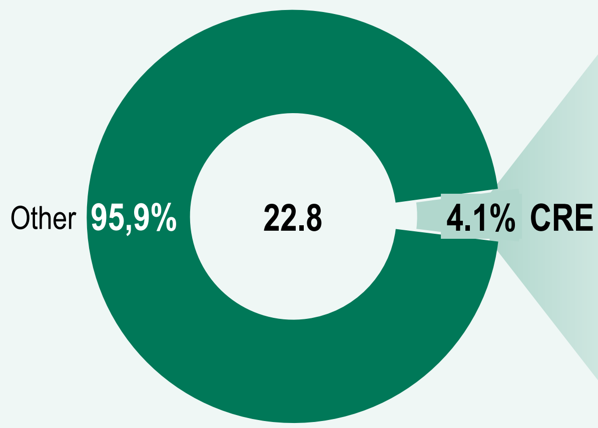
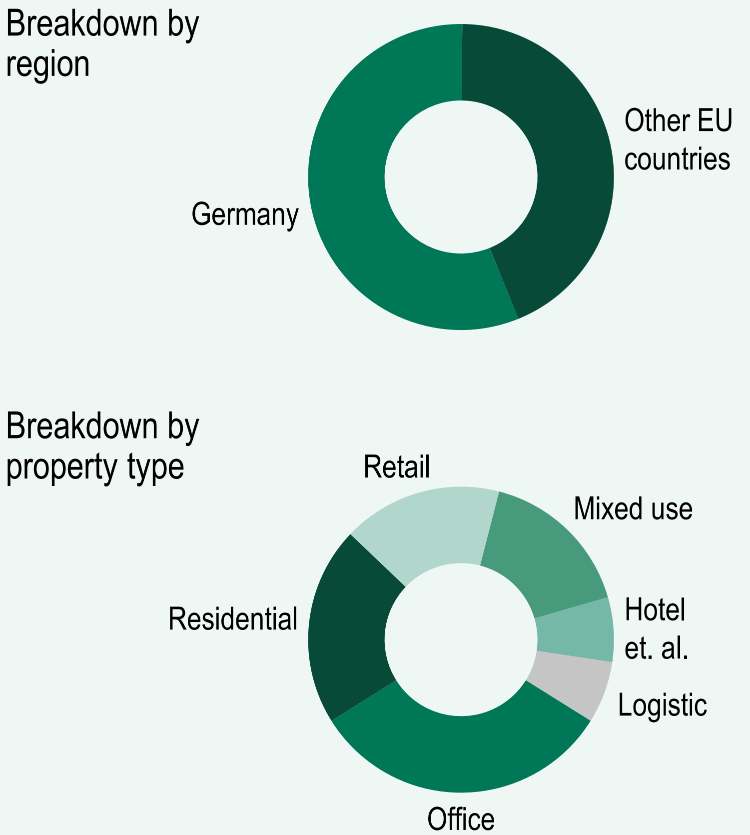
Commercial Real Estate (CRE) accounts for ~4% of the total loan portfolio

CRE proportion of loan portfolio[1] [€bn]



Breakdown of the CRE portfolio[1]



Comments

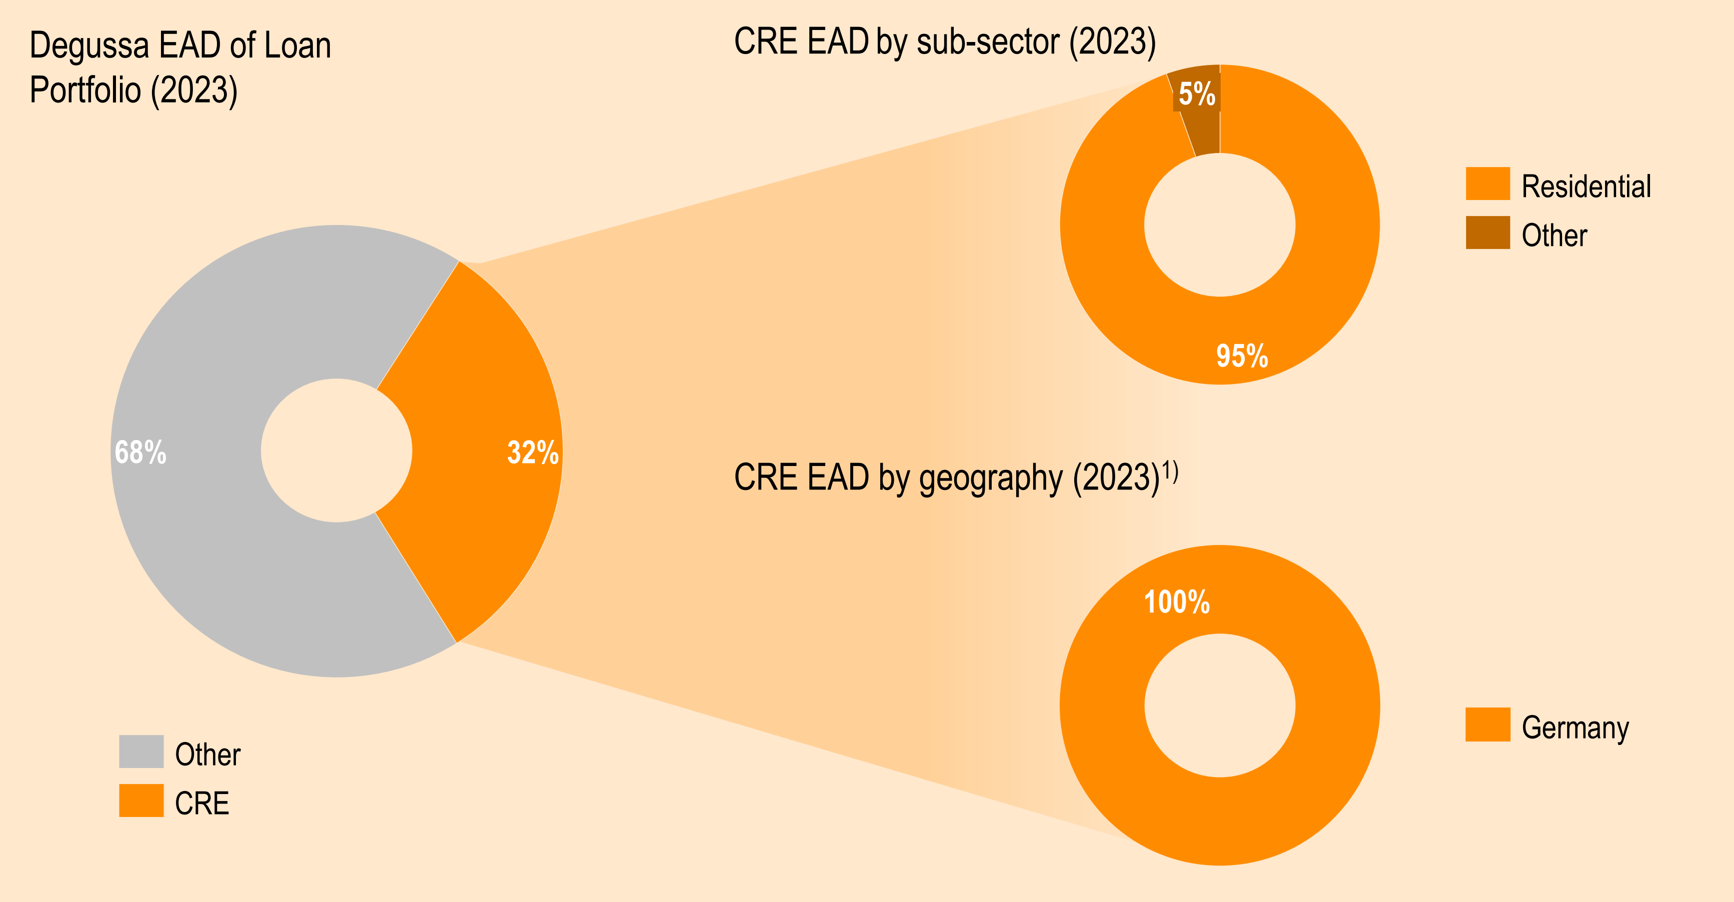
- CRE with low relative share of 4% of total EaD
- 100% of portfolio in EU countries, no US and UK exposure; essentially all senior secured/mortgage-backed financings
- Selective business approach – very prudent underwriting guidelines, focused on professional well-capitalized sponsors
- >90% of deals are self-originated via direct and long-standing client relationships; limited volume from participations in syndications
- No financing of pure development loans (property developers) since Q3 2021
- LTV at 69% based on current valuations
- Average EaD of ~€24m with remaining maturity of 1.6 years[2]

1) On the basis of exposure at default, data as of Dec 2023
2) As of Dec 2023

CRE Excurse: Degussa Bank acquisition increases high-quality and low-risk CRE

Degussa Bank CRE exposure

- Entire CRE exposure via super senior financing of CRE-related funds (Industria)
- CRE EAD contributes 26% to the total Degussa Bank EAD and 32% to loan portfolio
- Funds with low-risk CRE exposure
  - 42% average LTV
  - 95% Residential
  - 100% in Germany of underlying CRE collateral
- 90% of financing related to completed real estate
- Only ~2% office real estate as collateral while majority (85%) are apartment buildings
- Very good geographical distribution (measured by federal states) within Germany



Information based on publicly available information from Degussa Bank AG as of February 2024 and not verified. Information is subject to change.
